Sir

In reply to Dewan's office Official Memorandum No 392 dated 12th November 1889 regarding the Keshava Upgowda's petition, I have the honor to report that it was three years ago the construction of the temple referred to in the petition was taken up in hand and the temple is now complete and fit for use.

2. The temple has been consecrated and is daily worshipped by the villagers of Ubbenhalli and some of the Basavanahalli people.

3. One Ubbenhalli Timmappa who laid the foundation Stone of the temple owning his life time and when when half the work was done he died. The sons of the deceased neglected the completion of the work as they were short of funds. but the Tagesvar took up the work and has completed it at a cost of about Rs 1500/-.

4 The Amildar of Chikmag lur reports that the deities established in the temple are worshipped ~~worshipped~~ by Brahmans and other Hindus. There are other temples having Inams in the village of Uppahalli but they are not frequented by Brahmans.

5 I beg to add that the temple referred to by the petitioner is situated on the banks of a pond in front of the village of Uppahalli. It is substantially built with stones. The building is meritorious but it has to be sufficiently endowed for the performance of the various Poojas &c

The Tagesvaras petition and the plan of the temple accompany.
